Hartford Adult Education Center Announces Spring Session

(January 11, 2008) – Hartford Adult Education will begin its spring session on January 23, 2008. Course registrations will occur between January 11-15, 2008; all current and prospective students are encouraged to contact Jacqueline Mann at 695-5847 to obtain a list of course offerings and to register for courses.

Class sessions are offered during days and evenings, and are held throughout the year. All classes are free for Hartford residents.

The Adult Education Center has relocated to 110 Washington Street in Hartford. The Center will continue to offer courses toward achieving a high school diploma or GED. In addition, the Center offers courses at all levels of English as a second language (ESL).
