Hartford Public Schools To Hold Community Budget Forums

The Hartford Board of Education is inviting the public to a series of community forums to learn more about the Superintendent's proposed 2004-2005 budget.

The forums are intended to alert the public to the budget prospects and implications that possible budget cuts will have on our children and our schools. In addition, the board hopes to hear the community's priorities, suggestions and recommendations.

The budget forums are scheduled as follows:

Tuesday, March 23, 2004 at 6 p.m. - Parkville Elementary School (1755 Park Street)
Thursday, March 25, 2004 at 6 p.m. - M. L. King Elementary School (25 Ridgefield St.)
Tuesday, March 30, 2004 at 6 p.m. - Bellizzi Middle School (215 South Street)
Wednesday, March 31, 2004 at 6 p.m. - Clark School (75 Clark Street)
Thursday, April 1, 2004 at 6 p.m. - Moylan School (101 Catherine Street)

For more information, please contact Jacquelyn Hardy, Hartford Public Schools Senior Director of Communications and Community Affairs, at (860) 695-8409; or Judith Fagan, Support Administrator to the Board of Education, at (860) 695-8410.
