Prerequisites for Success: Organizational Development and Board Commitment

1. Organizational Development Process
   - Identify organizational, management, and cultural requirements to ensure effective operating teams across the district.
   - Develop management processes, procedures, structures and systems for strategic alignment between departments, central office and schools, and between schools.
   - Develop and nurture an organizational cultural identity that embraces the shared values, guiding communications principles, and “ways of working” that Hartford Public Schools champions and supports.
Prerequisites for Success: Organizational Development and Board Commitment

2. Board Commitment

• BOE embraces the recommendations of the communications plan as a prerequisite for the successful implementation of the strategies in partnership with district staff.
• Members of the Board of Education speak with one voice in support of the institution when communicating or describing the district’s overall vision, goals, core beliefs, aspirations, objectives, and strategies.

Vision and Mission

Vision: Hartford Public School graduates are empowered thinkers, engaged citizens, and lifelong learners who will strengthen our city, region, and state.

Mission: Hartford Public Schools is a community of learners, educators, families, and community members working together to ensure students meet the academic, college, and career readiness expectations that will prepare them for success in life.
Core Beliefs

- The specific needs, styles, and aspirations of individual students drive learning and instruction.
- Teachers and other educators have the greatest impact on student learning as they proactively form deep, meaningful relationships with students.
- Informed and engaged families and caregivers are necessary and vital contributors to educational success.
- Literacy is the foundational skill upon which long-term success in and beyond school is built.
- The entire community, as a key beneficiary of high performing schools, must be engaged in and supportive of our approach to education.

Communications Goal

Build awareness, improve understanding, and inspire support, commitment, and engagement among all Hartford Public Schools stakeholders for the next level of initiatives designed to close the achievement gap and prepare students for college and careers.

Foundation

Guiding Principles

1. Effective communications is fundamental to our success.
2. Active, transparent communications drive effectiveness.
3. Communications is a strategic tool, not a transactional vehicle.
4. Consistent message delivery strengthens understanding.
5. Communications must be adjusted for different audiences.
6. Our individual schools operate as part of a broader system.
