GET TO KNOW US

- Capital Prep’s Learner Expectations include Collaborators, Problem Solvers, Researcher/Information Processors, Empathetic Citizens, and Pillars of Knowledge.

- Seniors must complete a Social Justice Project in order to graduate, which is a performance-based task where students will demonstrate their ability to question, research, lead, act, present, and reflect in order to confront a social injustice in their community.

- Capital Prep hosts an annual Social Justice Conference serving three main purposes:
  - To showcase exemplary student capstone social justice projects and provide an informed audience as our seniors compete for the honor of “distinction”
  - To provide an opportunity for local advocacy groups to interact with and educate our community
  - To serve as a platform for local social justice advocates to share their stories
