ABOUT US

Founded in 1638, the historic Hartford Public High School services students in grades 9-12 in the greater Hartford, CT community. It is the second-oldest public secondary school in the United States.

Hartford Public High School is a learner-centered environment where adults and students thrive in an equitable culture of high expectations that comprehensively prepares every student for college and career success. Students engage in learning that is authentic with significant emphasis on critical-thinking, problem-solving, communication and advocacy, providing students with the foundation needed for success in college and beyond.

Highly qualified teachers and support staff prepare our graduates to be lifelong learners and to live healthy lives. All efforts are coordinated to ensure students acquire marketable skills and have opportunities to earn industry-recognized credentials for careers and gain secondary and postsecondary education, training, and support services.
