Parkville Community School

GET TO KNOW US

- Parkville shares the vision of the community complex that meets the needs of our families in one centralized location, with partnerships that include the Parkville Senior Center, Hartford Public Library, Catholic Family Charities, and the Charter Oak Health Center.
- We believe our school is a major part of the community, and we are active members of the Parkville NRZ and the Parkville Business and Community Associations.
- Our school believes in educating students in all areas including Academics, Art, STEM, Physical Education, Technology and Social-Emotional Learning.
- Parkville Community School has a direct pathway into McDonough Middle School; no application is needed for our students to access the middle school.

OUR OPPORTUNITIES FOR SUCCESS

CURRICULUM

Students are active participants in their learning and engage in both academic classes and social-emotional learning, Music, Art, Technology, and PE.

TECHNOLOGY

Technology is essential for 21st Century learning. Our students in grades 1-5 are each provided with a Chromebook and all classrooms have a SMART Board.

ABOUT US

Located in the west central section of Hartford, Parkville Community School is home to 500 students from diverse backgrounds, representing every Hartford neighborhood and over 20 countries.

Parkville Community School is a multicultural community that challenges active learners using differentiated instruction, while creating a safe environment to nurture respectful and responsible citizens.

Parkville Community School provides a learning environment where all students learn to their maximum potential and are prepared for middle school. We envision the school as a community of active learners and leaders where they develop self-confidence, respect for themselves, their school, and their community.

The multicultural and multilingual educational setting ensures sensitivity to various cultures. Caring teachers and staff provide the basis for meaningful and knowledgeable connections.
