On February 10, 2017, Hartford Public Schools released an Action Plan in response to the Office of the Child Advocate’s report regarding compliance with legal requirements for mandated reporting of suspected child abuse and neglect. Be a part of the actions we are taking to build a culture of accountability, communication, respect and safety so every child can thrive.

Information Presentation by the Office of the Connecticut State Child Advocate on their OCA Report, and HPS Action Plan Presentation by Acting Superintendent, Dr. Leslie Torres-Rodriguez

- Thursday, 3/23/2017 5:30-7:00 pm Milner School, 104 Vine Street
- Thursday, 4/6/2017 5:30-7:00 pm Journalism & Media Academy, 150 Tower Ave.

Community Conversations on preventing child abuse and neglect, recognizing the signs, reporting, and getting help.

- Thursday, 3/30/2017 5:30-7:30 pm Bulkeley High School, 300 Wethersfield Ave.
- Thursday, 4/20/2017 5:30-7:30 pm Hartford Public High School, 55 Forest Street

CONTRIBUTING PARTNERS: The Village for Families and Children, The Lighthouse Project at Rawson, Voices of Women of Color, Children’s Advocacy Center at St. Francis Medical Center, Catholic Charities Institute for the Hispanic Family, Padres Abriendo Puertas, COMPASS Youth Collaborative, Boys and Girls Club of Hartford, City of Hartford Office of Community Engagement, UConn Center for Health Disparities, Blue Hills Civic Association, Upper Albany NRZ, Girls For Technology, and others to come.

HAVE QUESTIONS?
- About the OCA report, please contact the Office of the Child Advocate at 800-994-0939 or email at oca@ct.gov
- About the HPS Action Plan, call 860-200-7333 or email Superintendent@hartfordschools.org