5:50-6:10 | SCHOOL-WIDE STRUCTURES

BRINGING THE LAW TO LIFE: STUDENT COURT

Student Court is a class where students resolve discipline cases involving their peers. Court members receive training in trial practice, mindfulness, restorative justice, and other matters to enable them to assist their peers in having better school outcomes.

Students: D’Ziyah Mitchell and Frances Reyes
Teacher: Bridget Allison
School: Hartford Public High School

6:15-6:35 | CLASSROOM PRACTICES

STUDENT NEWS

Hear how Student News has helped students develop skills in editing, video and audio production, and public speaking. Working on a daily news program has also helped build self-confidence, motivation, and, most importantly, time management.

Students: Dzenita Guster, Shayla Harrison, and Robert Tavarez
Teacher: Adelle Clark
School: Pathways Academy of Technology & Design

6:40-7:00 | STUDENT VOICES

THE CT PUBLIC MEDIA LAB

Through a series of live demonstrations and pre-loaded content, students will showcase all of the happenings in 301B, a CT Public student-centered media hub embedded in the Journalism & Media Academy.

Students: Kwaku Darko, James Johnson, Tim Gibson, and Jade Reece
Teacher: Tikeyah Whittle
School: Journalism & Media Academy