YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS

Where to Start.....

Presenter:
Rochelle Currie,
Program Manager
In their situation homeless and unstably housed youth are challenging to identify and engage. They are considered a “hidden” population. CT ranked 49th of all 50 states for identifying and educating homeless students (2017).
Call 211 if you are experiencing homelessness

° Who Can Call?

• Any young person struggling with housing instability should first reach out to a trusted adult within their community.
• If you do not have a trusted adult available, please call 211 for assistance.
2-1-1 is a free, confidential information and referral service that connects people to essential health and human services 24 hours a day, seven days a week online and over the phone.

There are over 200 independently operated 2-1-1s throughout the US, many operated by United Ways.

Accredited by AIRS (Alliance for Information and Referral Systems).

Infoline began in 1976, as a public/private partnership between United Ways and the State of Connecticut.

In 1999, Connecticut became the first state to use 2-1-1 for statewide assistance.

2-1-1 Connecticut celebrated in 2016.
IF A YOUTH/YOUNG ADULT BETWEEN THE AGES OF 18-24 ARE EXPERIENCE HOMELESSNESS

- A knowledgeable representative from 211 will assess the needs of an individual
- They will ask detailed questions about the individual in crisis.
- The representative will try and find a solution.
WHAT SERVICES?
FAMILY MEDIATION & RECONNECTION
MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES
EMPLOYMENT & EDUCATION ASSISTANCE
SUBSTANCE ABUSE
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
EMERGENCY FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE
If Needed...

If a solution cannot be made, an appointment will be made with a youth navigator to further assist the individual.

- The youth navigator will work with the individual to find a safe housing solution if possible.
- Hartford has two shelters specific for young adults only.
- The youth navigator will continue to work with the individual on employment, vocational resources.
Housing Programs in Hartford

- The Connection Start RRH
- Rapid Rehousing for Emerging Adults
- Who qualifies…. It goes back to the 211 call and the youth navigators working with the individuals.
- If the young adult is verified to be homeless. The young adult will be added to any housing waitlist while working with a Youth Navigator.
- Housing is not guarantee to any homeless young adult.
