Hartford Public Schools (HPS) is committed to ensuring our families are engaged and inspired by the school options we have to offer. Our school choices include specialized district schools and theme-based magnet schools; each offers a unique curriculum that prepares our students to be successful in and beyond school. Additional opportunities are offered through our partnerships with the CT State Department of Education’s Regional School Choice Office (RSCO) and other educational providers.

HPS provides more educational opportunities to Hartford residents and suburban families in the Greater Hartford region. Read below to learn more about school options and the pathways to access them.

DISTRICT SCHOOLS

District Schools are the designated schools for Hartford resident students and each student is guaranteed placement. These schools promote student achievement through an aligned curriculum across all grade levels. Students can apply to attend school that is a school close to their home.

In addition, District Schools ensure that all families have a clear direction forward, with established academic pathways within each zone from elementary to middle and through high school. See school transition chart below.

MAGNET SCHOOLS

Our 18 Magnet Schools are destination schools for Hartford and suburban residents. These schools have specialized curriculum themes and curated approaches to courses, coursework, and/or teaching methodology such as Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM), Performing Arts, Sports Medicine, and Social Justice. Magnet Schools attract children of varying socio-economic backgrounds, race and academic achievement levels. Due to high demand, student placement is determined by a lottery system.

OPEN CHOICE

Open Choice offers Hartford students the opportunity to attend public schools in suburban districts in the Greater Hartford area. In addition, suburban students have the opportunity to attend select HPS District Schools.

CONNECTICUT TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOLS (CTECH)

CTECH schools provide students in grades 11 and 12 with the opportunity to receive high school credits while learning technical skills.

CHARTER SCHOOLS

Charter schools are independently designed and operated schools that follow their own state-approved charter. Hartford Public Schools has a partnership with Achievement First Charter School and administers the application process for admission to their charter schools in Hartford.
